

CoNexion Attendees: Your “Think BIG” Opportunity!

If you haven't seen Steve Harvey's new reality show "Funderdome," go to abc.com and watch this HOT new reality show with an entrepreneurial twist! One of our General Session panels will be based on Steve's new show, and like last year's Shark Tank, our supplier partners and industry leadership will be sharing the stage with YOU, our valued members of Nexion. This is the opportunity for you to Think BIG and pitch your idea to our panel of trusted advisors, along with your fellow Nexion members who will be voting for you live from the CoNexion audience.

- Opportunity for YOU to be selected on the main stage at CoNexion 2017!
- General Session panel w/cruise line executives; you will “pitch” to execs and audience
- Opportunity for BIG funding opportunities; more to come!
- Submit your next “Think BIG” idea to education@nexion.com no later than Friday, Sept. 1 for consideration.
- Group opportunities, strategic partnerships, any worthy “Think BIG” IDEAS you come up with!

While we couldn't get Steve for this event, we managed to wrangle Charlie Silvia, VP of Trade Engagement for CLIA, and Nexion's own Cris De Souza, VP of Sales and Marketing, (both shown right) to co-host the event, and they were able to convince some of the biggest names in cruise line sales to act as “trusted advisors” and “customers in the audience” for this headliner event.

Charlie and Cris wrangled Gary Murphy, VP of Sales and Co-Owner of AmaWaterways; Vicki Freed, SVP of Sales and Trade Support and Services from Royal Caribbean; Camille Olivere, Norwegian's SVP of Sales; and Celebrity's VP of Sales Keith Lane (below, from left). So, don't be left behind. Think BIG! and submit your idea, along with your Nexion User ID, to education today!

Your “Trusted Advisors” and “Potential Cruise Line Customers”

